Norway Has Made the Test.

Norway People Will Get the Benefit

There's nobody in Norway any better known than C. E. Bradford and in giving his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, for the benefit of Norway kidney sufferers, he has nothing whatever to gain.

Why experiment with unknown or imitation kidney remedies when you have such a good reason to try Doan's?

Profit by the test Mr. Bradford has made for you.

C. E. Bradford, prop. laundry, Main street, Norway, says: "At times I had a dull pain through the small of my back, together with a tired feeling. I couldn't rest well. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Stone's Drug store and after using two boxes the pains left and I was greatly improved in every way. I have had no kidney trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bradford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

COMMON AILMENTS, How to Treat Them

A village doctor once said: "If my patients would take care of their little ailments, they would seldom need me for a serious illness." A headache, a disturbed stomach, a bilious attack, a little indigestion, or a cold in its first stages, are not serious in themselves; the danger is in what they may lead to. Many New England people have found a sure remedy for these common ailments in "Dr. F. J. Wood's Medicine." They say it is like having a doctor in the home. Your family needs it. Just say "L. F. J. Wood's Medicine" to your druggist. He will understand what you mean; he has calls for it nearly every day.

Buy a 35c bottle at your nearest store, or write today for a free sample.

FREE—On receipt of a yellow outside wrapper with your opinion of the medicine, we will send one of our Needle Books with a good assortment of high grade needles, useful in every family.

FRYEBURG

Maria L. Chandler

Maria L. Chandler met with a painful accident, May 15, by falling and fracturing her hip from which she never recovered, passing away on May 31st.

The deceased was married to Moses Chandler, June 26th, 1874 and has lived in Fryeburg since her marriage with the exception of a year and a half spent in Norway caring for her sister, Mrs. C. E. Holt. She lived alone since the death of her husband some 17 years ago, and has been remarkably smart for a lady of her age, holding out in mind and body until she got hurt.

Services were held at her late home, Friday, Rev. B. N. Stone officiating. W. H. Tarbox, W. R. Tarbox and William Gordon attended. Mrs. Chandler was a very estimable lady and will be greatly missed in the neighborhood, where she has resided for many years. Mrs. Chandler taught school several years before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Duston, who have lived in this vicinity for the last five or six years, left Saturday to make their home near relatives in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Duston have made many friends since coming to Fryeburg, who regretted exceedingly to part with them and they also held very many friends from their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Duston were both musical and were very hospitable and entertaining and the good wishes of all who had the pleasure of knowing them go with them to their Western home.

Friends of Mrs. Wallace Towle are pleased to know she has been able to ride out and hope she will continue to gain.

Michael Keefe, who has recently severed his connection with the M. C. R. R., has a wonderful record. 44 years he has been in their employ and not one unpleasant word between Mr. Keefe and his employers in all of those years. Mr. Keefe is one of Fryeburg's best citizens.

His word is as good as his bond and he is ever ready to help anyone in need. He is ever ready to help anyone in need. He is ever ready to help anyone in need.

Mr. D. B. Hill and Frank Drew on Memorial day making it very easy for them to attend the memorial services. SPEAKING OF HUSBANDS.

There is some deviation from strict good form to which many women cling. This is the custom of referring to one's husband as "Mr. Brown" or "Dr. Smith." And the curious part is that one has often seen a girl after marriage laboriously substitute "Mister" for the familiar "Harry" or "Will" that she has used before, as if marriage, to herself implied an accession of dignity that must be marked.

When you are talking with persons of your own station in life, it is incorrect to refer to your husband by his title as it would be to speak of your brother as "Mr. Jones." If you are on formal terms with the person to whom you are speaking say "my husband," just as you would say "my brother," under similar circumstances; otherwise the unadorned Christian name should be used.

There is a distinct discourtesy in using the title if one stopped to think about it. It implies that you find it necessary to describe the proper form of address.

SAVE THE ARBUTUS

Every year the recklessness of those who gather certain varieties of wild flowers is deplored, and the public is warned that the trailing arbutus, the mountain laurel and other varieties may become extinct, as the dodo and the passenger pigeon have become in bird life, unless more care is taken to preserve them. Already it is noted that persons who know of places are keeping this knowledge to themselves.

Why should there not be a closed season for flowers, as there is for game? It would not materially injure anyone if the gathering of certain varieties of flowers should be restricted, or even prohibited, temporarily, until there had been time for them to become, once more, abundant as in former days.

It might not be possible to enforce the law altogether, but a penalty for gathering, sale or possession of flowers protected would make the majority of people much more careful, and would preserve in many instances our most beautiful native blossoms.

The arbutus, the mountain laurel, the cardinal flower, the fringed gentian and others that might be named are well worth the gathering, and which grow in the woods in spite of reckless handling to satisfy flower-growers of reasonable type. People are beginning to appreciate more and more the decorative possibilities of flowers once passed by with indifference, and are using them on their grounds, as well as in their houses. The spread of nature-study among children has done much to cultivate a love for the blossoms, and they could easily be taught the need of care for the rarer varieties. Here is a good opportunity for the Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls to do a real service to the Country in which they live, and the flowers would need no better guardians than these young people, backed up by legislative authority.

Look Out for Grafters.

Reports coming from all parts of the country indicate that a horde of grafters are working their way west to the California expositions. These grafters avoid the larger cities as a general rule and confine their operations to the smaller communities. A favorite method of getting money to help them on their way is to represent themselves as collectors for some religious, temperance, charity or educational movement, and some of them this year pretend to be working for the suffrage cause.

In one town in Nebraska last week so many of these charity and temperance "moochers" had worked the citizens that a Salvation Army lassie—a bona fide collector for the organization—had had to handle to collect enough to pay her fare out of town. Most of the grafters carried "credentials," which, upon investigation, proved to be not worth the paper they were written on. The editor of the local paper, after exposing the game, warns his readers thus: "Beware of the religious 'moochers' or grafters, he or she is the most despicable hypocrite on earth. If you have a desire to give to charity or the church you can find plenty of opportunities right here at home."

ABBOTT'S MILLS

Mrs. Rice has been having the grippe, but is better now.
Mrs. J. H. Abbott passed away after being confined to bed a long time. Several from this place went to Rumford Saturday.

Albert Hopkins went to Reading and got two nice pigs.
Thurflow is moving to West Peru into the house with his brother onto the Cuthingham farm on the Ridge road. Charles Jackson and friends went to Rumford Falls Saturday in the auto.

Five from here attended the Grange meeting at Bryant's Pond last Saturday evening. Ice cream and cake was served.

Spiritual Magnetism.

If the world gets from you today the best you have to give you may rest assured it will pay you back in your own coin tomorrow, and with interest. On the other hand, if you seek revenge the same law holds good, for in "taking revenge" you are but even with your enemy, but in passing over to an injury you are superior. Such thoughts as "getting even" if cherished in the mind, will tend to make you a psychic. He who never forgets a friend and always forgives a foe is making no mistake. That is the way the soul grows. That is the way to cultivate personal magnetism—spiritual—Edward B. Warner in Nautlius.

A Habit With Him.

Brought up before the municipal court, the old offender had his witnesses with him, a fine array of them, to prove that he could not possibly have committed the misdemeanor of which he was accused.

"What is your excuse going to be this time?" inquired the judge.

"An alibi," What, again? Why, to my personal recollection you've been up before me five times, and you've always had an alibi. It may be right—I don't say it isn't—but I'm curious to know whether you were ever once in your whole life, where you were supposed to be?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Served Alphabetically.

Roman emperors who feasted copiously and sumptuously had no menu card, so they often spoiled their enjoyment of a banquet by eating too much of one dish and passing over something they specially liked. According to Montaigne, one of the Roman emperors, devised an order for serving dishes which enabled him to serve to forget what was coming next. "Get a, the emperor, would have all his messes or dishes served in at his table orderly, according to the first letters of their names, as for example, those that began with p, as pig, pie, puddings, pouts, pork, panaches, etc., were all served in together, and so of all the rest."

Amusing.

Hiram Greene: "What did your sister say when you told her I was going to make a speech in the town hall to-night? Willie—She didn't say nothing! She just laughed till she had hysterical fits."

KEZAR FALLS.

The Harvard Quartette of Portland, assisted by Mrs. June Shaw Baker as reader, gave a concert in Knights of Pythias Hall, Tuesday evening, June 15, under the auspices of the graduates of Porter High School. The concert was greatly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

Every one was so intent on performance that they were while a collection of cake and punch was served. Friday, the class went to Long Pond on a picnic, returning home tired but happy, believing that all's well that ends well.

Last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Hughes baptized five persons at Long Pond, Pythian Parsonage.

Pythian Sunday was well observed here last Sunday. Two hundred and eighty people were in the church. Mr. Hughes took his text from the third verse of the third chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians. The Kezar Falls choral union, conducted by L. B. Cain, Portland, assisted by Inn Stanley of the New England Conservatory, did good work. They sang, "Hear my Prayer," "Unfold, Ye Portals," and "Thee We Adore." Mr. Cain sang two solos, "Judge Me, O God," and "Love Rhapsodies."

BOLSTER'S MILLS

A Birthday Surprise

On Wednesday, June 2nd, several neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Elmer Thomas and from there went to the home of Mrs. J. Wendall Weston's and gave her a very pleasant surprise, it being the occasion of her 68th birthday.

After a while spent in social chat, the ladies proceeded to the dining room and prepared a bountiful feast of coffee, sandwiches, fancy cakes, tarts and ice cream and cake. The table was illuminated with candles and a very pleasant hour was passed, each one showing their appreciation of the good things set before them.

After the table was cleared all repaired to the sitting-room and each told stories and jokes.

On account of the lateness of the hour it became necessary to adjourn to their several homes which they did after wishing Mrs. Weston many happy returns and thanking Mrs. Thomas for her kindness in preparing all the good things for the occasion.

John Ingersoll and wife recently motor-ed to Winthrop.

Estella Bolster, who has been working in Bridgton, has returned to her home. Mrs. Fred Bolster recently visited her daughter, Mrs. French, at North Newry. Melville Wilbur and wife of Norway accompanied by friends attended the Eastern Star meeting on Tuesday evening.

Mary Perry of Norway Lake is passing a few days with relatives in this place.

There was a Concert company performed at Grange hall on Friday evening.

The Masonic lodge entertained a large delegation of visitors at the last session, mostly of Poland, including the Rick-ers.

Pomona Grange

Oxford County Pomona Grange was entertained by Crooked River Grange on Tuesday, June 1st. There was a large assembly, the following granges being represented, South Paris, Norway, West Paris, Franklin of Woodstock, Swe-Mountain, Round Pond, Waterford, Lake-den, Frederick Robie, Lakeside and Crooked River. BEST PAINT

What is it? Devco. How Devco? It's 160 years old; but that isn't how. It has long been the best; but that isn't how.

It has been developed by use and study, by study and use; that is how; and approved by experience, many years; that's how.

It commends itself by long lasting and small paint-cost; not cheap for the job and cheap by the year and ten years, cheap by the life-time.

That's how. 24 F. P. Stone, Norway; F. N. Wright, South Paris; Emery & Shaw Co., West Paris sell it.

The regular session of Crooked River Grange on Saturday evening was a very enjoyable occasion, the grandmothers of the order furnishing a program, and dressing in old fashioned costumes, in- stead of modern ones. The following program was given: Instrumental solo, Lizzie Edwards; encore; reading, Labelle Warren; song and tableau; reading, Elizabeth Scribner; illustrated song, an old fashioned dance and the closing num- ber, song, "The Oldtime Religion."

Lunch of Johnny cake and milk with salted fish was served in the dining hall. The usual social followed and a merry time was enjoyed throughout the entire eve- ning. This was an innovation in the grange program and certainly proved unique.
